

Programme Day One Wednesday 24 February 2010

8.00 - 9.00	Registration
	Chair: Graeme Ramsey
9.00 - 9.30	Whakatau (Welcome) Undertaken by Kaumatua - Māori Elder: Bob Hawke and Conference Opening Prof. Max Abbott Graeme Ramsey and Gary Brown
9.30 - 9.40	Housekeeping: MC: Ruth DeSouza
9.40 - 10.00	Ministerial opening address: Hon Nathan Guy
10.00 - 10.30	Conference opening address: Professor Max Abbott – Technology- impacts on and potential with regard to gambling policy, practice and research
10.30 - 11.00	Karakia (Prayer) To start kai (Morning tea)
	Chair: Terry Huriwai
11.00 - 11.30	Cultural addresses:
	Māori – Denis McLeod
	Pacific – Carmel Sepuloni
	Asian - Jessica Phuang
11.30 - 12.30	Keynote: Moana Jackson
12.30 - 1.30	Karakia (Prayer) to Start Kai (Lunch)
1.30 - 2.30	Chair: Professor Max Abbott
	Keynote: Professor Robert Williams - Internet Gambling: Past, Present and Future
2.30 - 3.30	Consumer voices panel
3.30 - 4.00	Karakia (Prayer) To start kai (Afternoon tea)
	Concurrent sessions
	Ballroom 1	Ballroom 2	Elliott Room 1	Elliott Room 2	Elliott Room 3
	Chair: Phil Townshend	Chair: Terry Huriwai	Chair: Katie Palmer	Chair: Dave Clarke	Chair: Brent Diack
4.00 - 4.30	Jennifer Reynolds & David Korn	Lorna Dyall	Jenny Curry	Rachel A. Volberg	Major Lynette Hutson
	Deal me in: Utilizing media and technology in engaging youth in the area of gambling education/ prevention	Whānau ora: Old technology for new Issues (Māori community wellness)	Design and technologies of space and 'pokie parlours' and aspects of influence on women and their gambling behaviour in New Zealand	Gambling and problem gambling as mechanisms of social domination: Some considerations	A marriage of convenience – problem gambling and AoD
4.30 - 5.00	Allanah Elvy	Dean Adam and	Cynthia Dunn	Tony Milne	Sean Sullivan
	Pseudo-gambling facilitated by social networking: youth may be at risk.	Funding and delivering problem gambling services using Māori frameworks. Nā tō rourou, nā taku rourou ka ora ai te iwi: With your food basket and my food basket the people will thrive	Gender differences in gambling behaviour: Do the pokies offer equality between the sexes?	Gambling and the rise of new technology: Using a public health approach.	A new generic 'addiction' practitioner about to emerge or just the current PG practitioner with 'extras': The imminent PG treatment competencies

Programme Day Two

Thursday 25 February 2010

8.00 -9.00	Registration
9.00 - 9.15	Pacific Welcome
9.15 - 9.20	Housekeeping: MC: Ruth DeSouza
	Chair: Professor Max Abbott
9.20 - 10.20	Keynote: Professor David Korn - Global Gambling in the 2nd Decade: Adapting the Public Health Approach
10.20 -10.50	Karakia (Prayer) To start kai (Morning tea)
	Chair: Gary Brown
10.50 -12.00	Clinical and Public Health Panel korero (discussion) 10 minutes each:
	Laurie Morrison (clinical)
	Mathew McMillan (clinical)
	Pesio Siitia (public health)
	Waitangi Wood (public health)
12.00 -12.10	Mini break to get to rooms for concurrent sessions
	Ballroom	Elliott Room 1	Elliott Room 2	Elliott Room 3
	Chair: Mark Henley	Chair: Laurie Siegel-Woodward	Chair: Papa Nahi	Chair: Phil Townshend
12.10 -12.40	Farishta Murzban Dinshaw	Patrick Chang Boon Lee	Denis McLeod	Pauliina Raento
	Meaningful messaging about gambling and problem gambling to outreach ethno-linguistic communities	Installing help on problem gambling in the Web	Rapuhia Pae Hou (Navigating New Horizons)	Virtues of visualization: gambling in Finnish political cartoons
12.40 - 1.10	Josephine Gray	Simone Rodda	Grant Reihana	Paul Pringle
	Pele e tau tupe!!!! Player of money, player of our family, a player of my heart strings!!!!	Gambling Help Online: Australia's first online gambling counselling and support program	Raukura Hauora O Tainui – Collaboration key to Whānau Ora	AH-HA HA HA'S: Gaining new perspectives through the use of humour
1.10 - 2.00	Karakia (Prayer) to start kai (Lunch)

DAY 2 Cont..	Ballroom 1	Ballroom 2	Elliott Room 1	Elliott Room 2	Elliott Room 3
		Workshop
2.00 - 2.30	Chair: Tony Milne	Chair: Jason London	Chair: Katie Palmer	Chair: Mark Henley	Chair: David Pimentel
		Michal Bardecki	Hannu Alho, T. Lahti, and others	Laurie Morrison	Hana Asi-Pakieto
	Sylvia Hagopian and Robert Murray	Gambling in Las Vegas, Nevada: Game-specific trends and developments	Treatment of gambling dependence with naltrexone pharmacotherapy and brief intervention: preliminary results	Planting seeds for whānau ora: A collective approach to addressing gambling harm in indigenous communities	Caring for Pacific people through telephone counselling: The Pasifika Gambling Helpline experience
2.30 - 3.00	If You Build It, Make Sure They Come: A Workshop Exploring the Challenges and Lessons Learned from www.ProblemGambling.ca	Dave Clarke,	Cynthia Dunn	Major Lynette Hutson	Pesio Ah Honi Siitia and Rufo Pupuallii
		Electronic gaming machines and problem gambling: casinos versus pubs and clubs	Problem gambling or the gambling problem: Is addiction a useful concept?	Brief Interventions – Working with the Salvation Army Social Services	Indigenous culture, capital and pokies. Innocence and inexperience leads to struggle: a Pacific assessment
3.00-3.30	Karakia (Prayer) To Start Kai (Afternoon Tea)
	Ballroom 1	Ballroom 2	Elliott Room 1	Elliott Room 2	Elliott Room 3
	Workshop
3.30 - 4.00	Chair: Brent Diack	Chair: David Pimentel	Chair: Jason London	Chair: Lisa Campbell-Dumlu	Chair: Dave Clarke
	Abby McCormack	Chrissi Clement	Vicki Fowler	Ken Wong
	Motivating and inhibiting factors of engaging in online gambling behaviour: A grounded theory study	A therapeutic exploration of the role of gambling, both as a regulator of emotion and as a source of hope	New Zealand gamblers in treatment seeking a controlled gambling approach	Responsible Gambling Policies: Distinctive Challenges in Macau
4.00 - 4.30	Sarah Henderson	Helen Breen	Janne Nikkinen	Lim Yun Chin	Marian Ruyter
	How online poker sites impede and promote responsible gambling	Risk and protective factors associated with the influence of gambling products and services on Indigenous Australian gamblers in north Queensland	Problem gambling interventions: Is CBT promoted above its usefulness?	Singapore's approach to address Problem Gambling	Using choice theory and reality therapy in a gambler's help service; an exploration of application and effectiveness in assessment, treatment and relapse prevention
4.30 - 5.00	Philip Townshend	Merryn Statham	Max Abbott	Pieter Remmers
	Philipp Townshend New Zealand Gambling - is the Internet this year's black?	Problem Gambling and suicide risk: using new tools to support best practice	Effectiveness study of problem gambling standard and brief interventions	Holland Casino as a role model - 20 years on and still a lot to do: Problem gambling and responsible gaming in The Netherlands
7pm	Kai Hakari (Conference Dinner)

Programme Day Three

Friday 26 February 2010

	Registration
9.00 - 9.15	Asain Welcome
9.15 - 9.30	Housekeeping: MC: Ruth DeSouza
	Chair: Professor Max Abbott
9.30-10.30	Government perspectives
	Ministry of Health - Barbara Phillips: Gambling in the 21st century, the implications of technology for policy, practise and research
	DIA - Mike Hill: Gambling regulation and the integrated gambling platform
10.30-11.00	Karakia (Prayer) To Start Kai (Morning Tea)
	Concurrent Sessions
	Ballroom	Elliott Room 1	Elliott Room 2	Elliott Room 3
	Chair: Donna Tamaariki	Chair: Lisa Campbell-Dumlu	Chair: Tony Milne	Chair: Katie Palmer
11.00 - 11.30	Workshop	Rebecca Coombes and Maria Bellringer Evaluation of problem gambling intervention services	Rebecca Gray Shaping and evaluating a problem gambling public health campaign: the research behind Kiwi Lives	Workshop Froukje Spaak
11.30 - 12.00	Mathew McMillan and Eru Loach	Sean Sullivan Done and dusted: is gambling harm due to be a thing of the past?	Santina Perrone and Deborah Jansons Problem Gambling and the Correctional Services System	The humble crayon: A return to a more basic form of technology
12.00 - 12.30	Te Kahu Korako, Working for Safe Environments	Marie Risbeck Is problem gambling a public health problem? Results from SWELOGS population study on gambling and health 2008/09	Mike Goulding The PG practitioner as a DHB worker: future shock or bonanza?	Wenli Zhang and Hans Everts Interactive Drawing Therapy and Chinese problem gamblers
12.30-1.30	Karakia (Prayer) to Start Kai (Lunch)
	Ballroom	Elliott Room 1	Elliott Room 2	Elliott Room 3
1.30 -2.00	Chair: Pesio Siitia Hannah Crump New media technologies: How is HSC using these for public health campaigns, and what are the opportunities for the problem gambling sector?	Chair: Dave Clarke Rebecca Coombes Effectiveness of gambling venue exclusion processes: a pilot study	Chair: Laurie Siegel-Woodward Ruth Herd Strengthening the New Zealand Problem Gambling Public Health Workforce Project. Te Kakano i ruia hei oranga whānau	Chair: Josephine Gray Mali Erick Auckland Tongan Youth Methodist Churches' perspective on problem gambling
2.00 -2.30	John Wong A non-threatening approach - Raising awareness of gambling harm and reducing stigma associated with problem gambling among Asian communities	Phillip Ryan Recent global developments in player pre-commitment policies to reduce problem gambling	Donna Tamaariki Hikoi te korero - walking the talk: Eliminating community reliance on gaming machine funding	Sofia Lema and Rodger Williams SAGA: Screening for Aboriginal Gambling Awareness in NSW Aboriginal communities
2.30 -3.00	Mele Ma'afu Halapua Sisi Kakala	Pieter Remmers Different technical solutions: stand alone or integrated: Problem gambling and responsible gaming in europe	Lorraine Beyer A David and Goliath battle: Macedon Ranges Shire Council and the Romsey community take State decision-makers to the Supreme Court	Layla Lyndon-Tonga Nga Manga Puriri: Strengthening community capabilities to reduce health inequalities
3.00 -3.30	Conference closing in the Ballroom: Kaumatua (Respected Māori Elder) Bob Hawke, Prof. Max Abbott, Graeme Ramsey and Gary Brown
3.30 -4.00	Karakia (Prayer) To Start Kai (Afternoon Tea)

