

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION MANAGER

Help make a difference to the lives of New Zealanders
Full time or 4 days per week

The Problem Gambling Foundation of New Zealand works to reduce the negative impact of gambling on New Zealand families. Based in central Auckland we employ 65 staff across New Zealand providing treatment services and prevention/education measures.

This is a dynamic organisation where people are creative and passionate about our cause. We are now seeking a finance and administration manager to run our small finance team and manage the fiscal resources of this charity.

We are seeking a qualified accountant with broad experience across different organisations who is able to contribute as part of the national management team. A sense of humour, self motivation and team working skills are essential.

We offer attractive working conditions and the knowledge that your work helps thousands of New Zealanders lead healthier lives.

For an information pack or to apply please send a covering letter with CV before March 5TH to annemarie.stevens@pgfnz.org.nz
